

7. Duo-Manual Organ

Instrument Identification

Model name Duo-Manual Organ, Style T
Serial/Opus number 411839
Company of manufacture Estey Organ Company
Date of manufacture 1919

Features

General description – Playing this powerful two manual reed organ requires two people: the organist and an assistant to turn the blower crank handle.
– The crank handle is original.

Options available – Orgoblo electrically driven fan blower
– The oak case may be stained any shade of oak, walnut, or mahogany; Dark Golden Oak is standard
– Optional decorative top
– Optional foot blowers (not recommended by Estey)

Description from Estey catalog

Specifications

Case red oak
Keys
Manuals – 2 five-octave manuals, not divided
– CC to C4
– 61 notes

Pedalboard – concave, radiating pedals
– 2 ½ octaves
– CCC to F
– 30 notes

Foot Pedals – Full Organ – a metal pedal which locks open all sets of reeds without pulling stops
– Balanced Swell – a continuous positioning pedal which opens all swells or shutters
– verify

Description of air source Original hand blower (bellow crank handle)

Stops summary – Action #61
– 15 stops; 5 mechanical, 10 speaking

Red Synopsis – 10 sets (4/4/2)
– 548 reeds
– Philharmonic Reeds (describe)
– Tuning: A+440 Hz Equal Temperament

Notes

Original Price

Condition

Donor information

Other comments/anecdotes

References

Carl Vogt

Many Style T organs were used in churches and for organists' home practice.

Whiting, Robert B. 1981. Estey Reed Organs on Parade. Vestal, NY. Vestal Press.

Stop Chart

Stop		Manual Controlled	Speaking or Mechanical	Notes
Upper Left
Vox Celeste	8	Swell	S	2 ranks
Salicional	8	Swell	S
Oboe	8	Swell	S
Flute	4	Swell	S
Lower Left
Swell to Pedal			M
Great to Pedal			M
Dulciana	16	Pedalboard	S
Diapaisón	16	Pedalboard	S	(cf Whiting 1903 catalog, p. 112 Bourdon)
Upper Right
Swell to Great			M
Tremolo			M
Octave Coupler			M
Lower Right
Diapaisón	8	Great	S
Clarinet	16	Great	S
Dulciana	8	Great	S
Trumpet	8	Great	S	